ROYAL COUPLE VISIT EDMONTON

The Royal Couple, shown in the Lieut. Gov. Chambers at the Legislative Building with Premier E. C. Manning, examine a photo of the first Royal Train which travelled across Canada in 1898 with the Duke of Connaught.

Royal Couple inspects the Guard of Honor drawn up at the C.N.R. depot. The princess commented on their smart appearance to Lieut. F. C. Short, R.C.N. Edmonton who was in command of the Guard. Members of the Navy, Army and Air Force reserve units made up the Guard. Three members of the Vermilion unit and eight mem-

Controversial Sand and Gravel Settled in Favor Land Owners

The Court's decision on the "Sand and Gravel" case has been delivered. In a unanimous decision, the five judges of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Alberta, upheld the appeal of Messrs. Brown and Gaumont, which was backed by the Farmers' Union of Alberta, and they dismissed the original case brought by the Western Minerals Ltd. to obtain rights to the sand and gravel on the farms of these two parties.

Last year the Western Minerals Ltd. brought suit against these two Edmonton district farmers who had gravel pits on their land, claiming that the sand and gravel went with the mineral rights. The judge awarded the gravel to the oil company. This meant that the farmers in question were to lose their rights to the sand and gravel on their land and were to pay the oil company for all gravel sold from the pits in question since they were started.

The Provincial Government felt so disturbed by the Court's decision that they enacted a law providing that in future all sand and gravel shall belong to the owner of the surface.

As the interests of many Alberta farmers may be involved, the Farmers' Union of Alberta decided to appeal the case of Brown and Gaumont. A fund was opened and donations were received from Farmers' Union Locals, Municipal Districts and individual farmers throughout the Province. In the event of a further appeal being launched by the oil company, the funds will be needed towards the expense of fighting the farmer's case.

As the case stands now, the appeal was upheld and therefore sand and gravel is the property of the farmers in question. The Court also upheld the validity of the Provincial Government's recently enacted "Surface Rights Act."

Marble Coffee Shop Reopens

Joe Yu of Calgary is the new proprietor of the Marble Coffee Shop, which re-opened for business this week.

The interior of the cafe has been completely redecorated and painted and wash rooms installed. Full course meals, lunches and fountain service are available at the coffee shop.

He: "Wait a minute. I thought I heard something break." She: "Never mind. That was just my promise to mother."

The Weather

A day-and-a-half-long Chinook cleared fields of snow last week end, but it was immediately followed by another snowstorm that left unharvested grain again four inches under a white blanket.

The weather has remained cold this week, dropping to two above zero Tuesday night. Prospects of completing harvesting this year are very dim.

IMMUNIZATION IS URGED

Parents of school-aged children in Alberta are urged to take advantage of the free service of immunization against smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough.

With the approach of winter, these diseases will become more prevalent and local health agencies are making a special effort this year to inoculate every child in their areas.

Regular inoculation in the past has kept these diseases to a minimum. Diphtheria has become almost a rarity due to the system of routine inoculation of children during the past 20 years, while smallpox and whooping cough are being suppressed by co-operation of parents in having their children immunized.

Public health agencies provide free immunization service and the Alberta Department of Public Health supplies all necessary materials. Parents wishing to have their children immunized against these diseases should consult their family physician or their local health department.

Gets Top Score In Rifle Shoot

Dave Brooks of Vulcan was the winner of the individual trophy for the highest score in a competition held last week by the Nanton Rifle and Revolver Club at Nanton.

Out of a possible score of 280, Mr. Brooks hit the bullseye for an outstanding total of 199 (15X). The team of which he was a member was headed by Eldon Jones of Staveland and won the team trophy with a score of 788 (47X), this being the totals of the top four scores of the six-man team.

Confirmation at St. Aldhelm's

A service of Adult Confirmation was held in St. Aldhelm's Church on Monday evening, Oct. 29. Although road conditions prevented many country people from attending, it was necessary to place additional chairs to handle the overflow congregation.

The service was conducted by Rt. Rev. Ivor Norris, Bishop of Brandon, and Rev. E. A. Justice, who presented the candidates. Bishop Norris was acting on behalf of the retiring Bishop of Calgary, Rt. Rev. H. R. Ragg.

In his sermon, the Bishop told the candidates that Christian grace could grow to perfection or else fade away, depending on how they themselves kept in touch with the Source through prayer and the activity of church life, especially communion. Too many did not take seriously the profound commitment of Christ in confirmation.

Those confirmed in the all-women class were Mrs. Edna Farr, Mrs. P. A. Thomson, Mrs. W. Mays, Mrs. C. Ottewill and Mrs. J. Lee of Carmangay.

After the service a social hour was held, with the ladies of St. Aldhelm's Guild serving a delicious lunch.

Urge Removal of Restrictions on Duck Shooting

Champion-The Annual Meeting of the Champion Local of United Grain Growers Ltd. was held on Saturday, Oct. 27, in the Town Office, Champion. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Chairman: Mr. John Hunzinger, other members of the local board: Mr. Harry Smith, Mr. Wilfred Warren, and Mr. Robert Bach; Secretary of Local Board, J. A. Mark. Delegate to the Company's Convention in Winnipeg, Mr. John Hunzinger.

The meeting decided to ask the Company to install a Grain Cleaner in their new elevator here, as an added convenience to local farmers.

The meeting also instructed their delegate to the Company's Annual Meeting in Winnipeg to strongly support the following resolution:

"Whereas with heavier precipitation, greater water storage and restricted shooting, the duck population of the Prairies has increased tremendously, and

"Whereas this increase has developed to the point that damage by the ducks to swathed and stocked grain has reached unbearable proportions to most farmers and particularly to those farmers adjacent to bodies of natural or stored water.

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Company's Annual Meeting petition the various governing bodies concerned to take all necessary steps to materially reduce the number of ducks, and

"Further be it resolved that most of the shooting restrictions in respect to ducks be removed and that the opening of the season be advanced to a date well in advance of the swathing or binding of spring wheat."

A ship that needs to be constantly kept in repair is friendship.

Objective is 200 Donations

Blood Donors Needed For Clinic Here Nov. 8

Because of the recent outbreak of typhoid in the southern part of the province, the Red Cross Mobile Blood Donor Clinics at Macleod, Cardston and Hillspring have been cancelled for the time being.

To meet the emergency, the Red Cross branches in High River, Nanton and Vulcan have volunteered to organize clinics. Although notice is very short, it is hoped that Vulcan and district will supply a large number of donors in order that the constant demand for blood may be met.

The local donor clinic will be held at the Canadian Legion hall on Thursday, Nov. 8, from 2:30 to 4:00 o'clock. It is hoped to supplement the number of donors from Vulcan and district by having several carloads of volunteers come from such points as Milo, Lomond, Champion and Carmangay and the clinic is aiming for a minimum figure of 200 donations of blood on this date.

It is true that not all persons can donate blood—some are not physically capable and others are not in the acceptable age group of 18 to 65. But every resident of Vulcan can help make the clinic a success, by attending themselves and by encouraging others to attend the clinic.

Some 3,000 bottles of blood are needed every month for Alberta hospital patients and blood plasma must also be stockpiled for future use.

Business College Names Executive

Miss Jean Christie of Three Hills was elected President of the Calgary Business College Students Council at the fall elections held on October 17.

Other student members elected to office were: Frances McCallum of Canmore, Vice-President; Bernice Mulroney of Calgary, Secretary; Gordon Gurevitch of Calgary, Treasurer; Don Gurevitch of Calgary, Sports Convener; and Barbara Dobson of Royal City, Publicity Manager.

Maureen Walshe of Nanton; Barbara Grant of Barons; Alberta Laing of Nanton and Bill Simington of Vulcan were also elected to the Council Committee.

Norman Scotney New President Scout Association

Norman Scotney was elected president of the Vulcan Scout and Guide Association at the annual business meeting held Friday evening in the L.O.O.F. hall. About 80 parents of Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies were present at the meeting. Mrs. A. G. Saxby was elected vice-president and Jim Shortt, secretary-treasurer.

Parents nominated for the group committees included Earl Erickson, Mrs. J. M. Jamison, Earl Bone, C. A. Northcott and A. G. Scott.

Each group presented a short program and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Church Club Hears Talk on Narcotics

The Candlelight Circle of the Church of Christ was held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Gonyea on October 25 with 28 members and one visitor in attendance.

The minutes were read and approved and correspondence was dealt with. Members were asked to bring supplies for the church nursery.

A very interesting talk on narcotics was given by Mrs. David Gonyea, followed by a short discussion.

A presentation of a cup and saucer was made to the Circle's latest bride, Mrs. Herbert Englund (nee Effie Van Dellen), who later conducted the social part of the evening.

A most delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ben Dunn.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Love with the election of officers for 1952.

Plans for boxing and table tennis are now under way, while a Halloween party is also being arranged.

Investing Over $100,000 Here

Gas Utilities Distribution System Soon in Operation

An investment of well over $100,000 is being made in Vulcan by Central Gas Utilities (Vulcan) Limited, stated Edgar C. Robinson, president of the company. In an interview with the Advocate last Friday, the company will supply propane air-mix gas to consumers in town through an underground distribution system and Vulcan is the first town in the province selected for installation of such a system.

Utility Engineering, Calgary, has been awarded the contract for the laying of mains at a cost of $70,000 and this part of the project has been underway for the past two weeks and is expected to be completed next week. The mains will cover all the business district and the major part of the residential district of the town.

The company's office and plant is located on the east side of Railway Avenue and the equipment being installed is the most modern and up-to-date available, said Mr. Robinson. The liquid propane gas will be mixed with air under pressure and fed into the mains from the plant. The plant will be completely automatic in its operation, with main operating parts having duplicate stand-bys to ensure an interrupted operation in case of breakdown.

A permanent staff of two men will be located in Vulcan, one of whom will be in charge of appliance adjustments and servicing.

Questions on the following points were asked Mr. Robinson and the information given by him should be of interest to Vulcan residents.

Cost of Gas?
For domestic use, the cost of heating with the gas will be comparable to the cost of heating with coal at $12.50 per ton. This cost includes the operation of a water heater and kitchen range with gas. If an electric range and water heater are in use, the cost would be proportionately lower. Cost of operating a water heater with the gas was much lower than with electricity, Mr. Robinson claimed.

Guarantee of Fair Rates?
The rates charged by the Company for gas are subject to the approval of the Utilities Board of the Provincial Government, which limits the return the Company can make on its capital investment and protects the interests of the consumer.

Safety of Gas?
The gas will be in the same form as natural gas and will be as safe to use as natural gas. It will be odorized, as is natural gas.

Surplus of Supply?
Adequate storage facilities will be part of the plant, and one to three months supply of gas will be on hand at all times.

What About Appliances?

As the gas will be in air-mix form, appliances installed will be of the same type as for natural gas use. If and when natural gas becomes available, absolutely no changeover will be necessary.

Cost of Installation?

From main to meter, regardless of distance of service line required, cost will be at a flat rate of $35.00 to each consumer. This is considered to be a minimum cost, said Mr. Robinson, and the Company will absorb the difference. Laying of service lines is expected to cost the Company $15.00 to $20.00, he said.

Any Meter Deposit?

No meter deposit will be required.

Will Pressure Be Constant?

With this air-mix plant being of the latest design and completely automatic, no trouble with pressure is anticipated, said Mr. Robinson. However, as an additional safeguard, an automatic cutoff is incorporated in the meter in case the pressure should drop.

Will Company Sell Appliances?

The Gas Utilities company will not be in the appliance business, he said. Selling and installing of appliances, such as furnaces, ranges, water heaters, radiators, will be handled by local or city firms.

When Will Gas Be Available?

Present plans are for the mains to be pressurized with gas the first part of December.

Applications For Service?

Arrangements have been made temporarily with the Town whereby applications will be taken by the Company's representative, at the Town Office, from 1 to 5 o'clock, every afternoon, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Will Company Pay Taxes?

Mr. Robinson stated that the company will pay taxes to the town, the same as any other business.

Will Extensions Be Made?

Extension may be made to blocks not served by the present mains, depending on the number of consumers in each block and the amount of gas to be used.

Head office of the company is at Calgary and although Vulcan is the first town in which the company is installing air-mix propane gas distribution system, plans call for expansion in the spring to certain other towns and cities in Western Canada.

Editor's Note: If further information on this matter is desired by any residents of the town they are invited to write the Advocate, which will endeavor to secure the information and publish it in the first possible issue.

Should Relax Duck Regulations

District crops, laying in the swath, are being ravaged by thousands of mallard ducks, despite the efforts of farmers and hunters to keep them moving. Particularly in the east country, bordering Lake McGregor, many 40 and 50 bushel crops in fields frequented by the ducks will hardly be worth picking up in the spring, so great has been the damage.

Already thousands of dollars have been lost by the farmers and with less than three weeks of shooting season left the question arises of what will happen then if the ducks are still here.

Ducks Unlimited, the organization responsible for pushing through many of the federal migratory birds conservation laws, is anything but popular with the farmer these days. The limited season, 8-a-day bag limit and plugs for pump guns don't make sense to the farmer when his unharvested grain is being used to fatten up ducks for the hunters south of the border.

It's about time that Ottawa gave a little consideration to the welfare of the grain farmer in this matter instead of enforcing a lot of regulations designed solely to ensure a good supply of ducks for the American hunter.

A Worrisome Season

The growing season of 1951 will go down in history as one of the most vexatious encountered by Alberta farmers since agriculture has been extensively developed in this province.

To start with, wet soil and a stormy early spring delayed seeding. Then frequent heavy rains prolonged the growth of grain unduly. All through the season the crops were from two to three weeks late.

Harvesting grain usually started in early August in Southern Alberta. But the grain was not ripe by then and the rain still kept coming down.

Then came the frost and snow in September and further rain. Just when harvesting had got nicely started once again, rainy weather came along and was followed by October snows.

Taking the province as a whole, two-thirds of the grain is in swaths or on the stem, in the latter instance badly "down" and tangled.

The grain farmers' payday comes once a year. When such a situation develops as is being faced this autumn, it makes for hard times for that important sector of our population. Only a farmer who has gone through such an experience can appreciate the worry and misery resulting therefrom.

The farmers have learned over the years, however, to take the bad with the good. The bad is bitter medicine at times but nothing much can be done about such a harvesting season as exists this year.

"O.K., you," he snapped. What's your name?"

"Aloycious Vlodorfstosky Mercowitskyvitch," the driver replied.

"Well," said the cop, pocketing his pad, "don't let me catch you again!"

Let Your Home Town Folks Build Your Community

The truth of the old adage "Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you," is experienced in all walks of life and in every field of endeavor. By substituting the words "your community" for the "the world," its scope is narrowed to the locale, which you call home. You hold the key to its prosperity, for only as you demand can the local merchant expand.

One of the most valuable resources in the building of your community is your young people—graduates from High School and University. Their talents and cultural influences can do much to bring a higher standard of living. However, all too often, this resource is dissipated by the drift of young folks to cities, which offer greater opportunities of advancement. Therefore the problem of your community is how to hold your young people for the mutual betterment of all its citizens.

To solve this problem, the community must be in a position to offer employment to a measure of security. This is best achieved through industry, whose payroll supports families, who, in turn, pay taxes and support the local merchants. Nevertheless to establish an industry in your community requires men of vision, foresight and action. They must have enough faith in it to invest their money there, enough initiative to work for it and when opportunity knocks to do something about it.

A good example of co-operative, community effort in establishing a local industry comes from Southern Manitoba. In the small town of Altona is a vegetable-oil processing plant has been set up and last year produced oil and other products valued at well over a million dollars. The oil is used in margarine, shortening and in cooking or salad oil, which are now being marketed nationally. The oil is produced from sunflower seeds, grown by the farmers in an extensive surrounding district.

This industry puts considerable ready cash into the hands of local farmers. It also maintains a large payroll, all of which brings increased prosperity to the local merchants. It was established because a few local farmers and business men had the faith, initiative and foresight to put their vision into action.

Your community may not be large, but it may be the centre of a rich supply of raw materials. Furthermore, as far as power rates are concerned, it has the same opportunity to establish industry as the large communities, since Calgary Power Ltd. offers the same industrial power rate to all towns in Alberta, regardless of size. —Ready Reader, Calgary Power Ltd. Bulletin.

Pruning of Trees And Shrubs

From now until the oncome of spring home owners will be seriously thinking of cutting the tops of their trees or in some form denuding their trees and shrubs of branches. This way of pruning simply bears out a statement made some two hundred years ago by a famous French gardener, which may well apply today. He said, "Everybody cuts, but few prune." Most trees and shrubs must be pruned and thinned out occasionally during their period of life and this weekly letter will describe briefly the pruning of trees and shrubs as practised at the Lethbridge Experimental Station.

Generally, pruning is considered as the act of removing a portion of a plant for the purpose of obtaining a graceful, well balanced tree or shrub of proper height, and to open up the plant so that light and air can get into the centre to produce healthy wood and flower buds.

Two important factors of pruning are: the way in which it is done and the time of pruning. The first simply means that the pruning cut is made clean and smooth and close to the remaining branch thus leaving no stub in which decay and disease can gain an entrance. The time factor is likewise important. Most pruning is done in the early spring and has two advantages: the cut can be made where a vigorous bud is located and smaller cuts and wounds will be well on the way to being covered over or healed by the development of new bark before the end of the growing season. Pruning is not practised unless it will serve some specific and useful purpose.

The pruning practises as they apply to a few representative trees and shrubs are outlined in the next paragraphs.

Ornamental Trees

Judicious pruning of individual trees may result in certain benefits, namely: the development of symmetrical specimens with well placed and well spaced branches, uniform growth over the entire tree, and the elimination of weak branches and undesirable crotch- es.

Some trees require less pruning than others. For example, spruce trees require practically no pruning apart from the removal of double tops. Except under unusual conditions, or to satisfy a personal fancy, the lower branches of spruce trees should not be cut off.

Elms, however, should have fairly severe annual pruning if poor crotches and top-heavy limbs are to be avoided. This habit of growth of the elm is well known, and it is a condition that one should learn to deal with rather than condemn a tree because of stumps.

With a view to developing smooth trunks, free from branches and unhealed wounds, pruning of ash, maple, elm, and similar kinds should begin when the trees are saplings instead of waiting until the trees are so large that they can be modified only by mutilation and by leaving ungainly

Flowering Shrubs

Species of shrubs, such as roses, which flower during the summer or autumn while making vigorous vegetative growth should be pruned during the dormant season, the newly formed branches being cut back or thinned out. Others such as lilacs, which flower in the spring before starting vegetative growth should be pruned as soon as flowering has ceased. In that case the branches pruned are those formed the preceding year. These are merely general rules for pruning all such shrubs as described. Those who know plants and study the habits of growth will prune cautiously and note the results. It is better not to prune if in doubt.

Fall Prevention Pointers

Statistics show that this year more than 2,200 Canadians will die as a result of accidents in their homes. In fact, one-third of all fatal accidents in Canada, from any and all causes, including automobile accidents, take place in the home. Half of these fatal home accidents are caused by falls, by tripping on a stair, falling over a toy or slipping in the bathtub.

Accidents don't happen—they are caused. So why not check your home today for its "fall prevention" rating. If your score is perfect with the following list, your family is in good hands.

1. Adequate light in halls and on stairways.
2. No articles "stored" on stairways.
3. Children's toys kept clear of stairways.
4. Scatter rugs anchored securely. (Rubber jar rings sown under the four corners is a good method)
5. Stairways, steps and handrails in good repair.
6. Boxes and other objects are always carried below the level of your chin so you can see over them.
7. Hand rail on the wall side of the bathtub to be grasped as you step in or out of the tub.
8. Rubber mat in the bathtub to give traction to the feet.
9. Have a firmly constructed step ladder for home use.
10. Garden tools go back to their proper places after using.
11. Clothesline platform is strongly constructed.
12. Outside steps, porch and sidewalks are kept clear of snow. Sand, ashes or rock salt is used when ice forms.

Twin Shower

Mrs. L. W. C. Lackey and Mrs. R. MacLeod were joint hostesses recently when they held a baby shower for the twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Siler, with 10 ladies present. Mrs. Siler was presented with a lovely high chair for one of the babies, after which she suitably thanked the ladies present. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

H. S. A.

The October meeting of the H. S. A. was held in the school last week. The proposed library was discussed and Mr. Gilbert was elected head of the committee to build the book shelves. The H.S.A. will sponsor the Xmas. concert again this year, with the teachers in charge.

Miss Gordon's room won the plaque and dollar for the most parents in attendance.

Films on Canadian Industry were shown. Mrs. Alder convened a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the regular date.

Amity Club

The regular meeting of the Amity Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. Coe on Tuesday, Oct. 13. There were 15 members and five visitors present. With Mrs. W. Matlock presiding, the ladies decided to take "pot luck" lunch to the next meeting, Nov. 7, which will be in the form of annual clean up day at Blusson school. The old school is used for winter entertainment. Mrs. Steve Cowgill won the tea-affle. Lunch was served by Mrs. C. Coe.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. L. W. C. Lackey entertained ten ladies recently in honor of Miss Nancy Gregory, whose marriage to Mr. John Carlson took place last Wednesday, Oct. 31. The shower took the form of a "memory book," each lady present, cutting pictures out of a magazine, which they thought would depict a phase of the honored guests life from childhood up to years after marriage. After being assembled covered and tied with a lovely ribbon, it was presented to the bride-to-be and passed around for the guests to see.

Mrs. A. L. Siler presented Miss Gregory with 12 pieces of Community Plate silverware on behalf of the ladies present. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Birthday Party

A joint birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nowlin last Saturday, Oct. 27, in honor of Mrs. W. Vickers, Mrs. E. Nowlin and Mr. Ed Ohlhelser. A very enjoyable social evening of community singing was had by the 30 guests. The hostess later served a delicious supper.

Community Shower

A community shower was held in the Champion Community hall last Saturday, Oct. 27, in honor of the much-feted bride-to-be, Miss Nancy Gregory.

The guest of honor was seated in a beautifully decorated chair with yellow and white tapers and balloons in the background. The rest of the banquet room was decorated in the Halloween motif.

The novel point of the afternoon was the presentation of the gifts by the small niece and nephew of the bride-to-be, Master Melvin and Miss Doreen MacLeod, who were charmingly dressed as a miniature bride and groom.

They pulled in a wagon, which contained a large crepe paper pumpkin full of gifts. At this point a balloon which was hanging over the head of the guest of honor, was pierced with a pin and she was showered with confetti. Miss Ruth Marshman presented the bride-to-be with a lovely corsage.

Assisting in opening the gifts were Mrs. R. MacLeod, sister of the honored guest, and Miss Margaret Carlson, aunt of the groom-to-be. After the many beautiful gifts had been passed around for everyone present to see, Miss Gregory suitably thanked her friends.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. The bride's table was centred with a lovely Angel food cake.

Curling Banquet Notice

The Champion Ladies Curling Club will hold a banquet in the Community hall on Monday, Nov. 5 at 6.30 p.m. All members are asked to please make their reservations, not later than Nov. 3 by phoning 75, 44 or 76. A good attendance is requested. A business meeting will be held, following the banquet.

Birthday Supper

The Savoy Hotel dining room was the setting for another joint birthday supper in honor of Mrs. W. Vickers, Mrs. E. Nowlin and Mr. Ed Ohlhelser on Sunday, Oct. 28. Tables were beautifully set with flowers and tall lighted candles for 50 guests, and a sumptuous supper of chicken chow mein and shrimp salad was served.

Wedding Vows Join Two Old-Time Families

Ivorson-Becker

Ivorson and the late Mrs. Ivorson, dove grey. Her corsage was of all of Champion.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was charming in a suit of teal blue gabardine (identical to that of the groom). She wore a small hat of pale blue straw trimmed in front with multi-colored flowers and veil. Other accessories were of American Beauty roses and rosebuds.

SEAT SAFEGUARD FOR PLANE PASSENGERS

Word comes from Australia that passenger seats in all new commercial aircraft will face toward the rear as a safeguard against injury in the event of a forced landing. Tests proved the occupants of aeroplanes who sat facing the rear stood a much greater chance of escaping serious injury, in case of an accident, than they would be facing forward. The immense advantage lies in reducing the shock of impact upon passengers. Engineers explain the principle in this way: If an aircraft with seats facing forward has to make a forced landing and the impact is severe, the safety belt tends to throw the head and upper parts of the persons body forward against the seat ahead, thereby often causing injury. When the seat faces the rear, a passenger in the same circumstances is thrown against the thickly padded back of his own seat and the impact is therefore cushioned.

What is Calthood Vaccination

The injection of vaccine or similar products into animals or humans is done so that the body builds up a resistance against a specific disease. For example, children are vaccinated against smallpox, diphtheria, etc., so they will not get these diseases.

Similarly, calves are vaccinated at 6, 7 or 8 months of age, and in some cases, older or younger, with Brucella abortus Strain 19 vaccine to build up a resistance to Bang's disease. Nothing in human or veterinary medicine is perfect, because individuals, whether human or animal respond differently, but calthood vaccination has proven to be about 95 per cent effective.

The purpose of building up a resistance in heifer calves against Bang's disease is so that when they mature, they will not lose their calves prematurely due to the disease. As mentioned above this resistance has proven to be about 95 per cent effective, which is very good.

Vaccination of calves is recommended in Bang's infected herds as one of the main weapons to finally clean up the disease on an economical and practical basis. As the calves with a resistance against Bang's mature and go into the milking line or beef herd, infected cows can be sold for slaughter. So over a period of a few years, this disease can be controlled by calthood vaccination coupled with good herd management.

Vaccination of calves is recommended in Bang's free herds so that eventually a herd will be built up with a resistance against the disease. If they haven't got this resistance, losses may run into hundreds of thousands of dollars if a Bang's infected animal is brought into the herd.

Check The Stove Pipes

Now is the time to check furnace and stove pipes. Faulty pipes are one of the chief causes of fires on Canadian farms. And while checking the pipes, what about the chimney itself? It can have deteriorated a lot in the past six months and need pointing or a new chimney pot. An excellent fire protection on a farm is a roof ladder, for fires often originate around the chimney and the roof.

A few buckets and a number of water barrels at suitable points around farm buildings are often a greater protection than a fire engine many miles away over snow-bound roads. But water barrels are worse than useless if the water is frozen, so choose a reasonably warm place to locate them.

The simplest fire-fighting equipment—a bucket of water or sand, a small fire extinguisher, even a horse blanket—if available immediately, can often smother an incipient fire before it becomes a disastrous blaze.

Pound for pound, sugar is a richer source of energy than dextrose.

MAJORVILLE

Thursday and Friday were roundup days on the community pasture and for some unknown reason when the men folks hied themselves off for the cattle it will be a tough struggle with the elements. As in past years, this was no exception and with a chinook blowing on Saturday trucks with cattle were unable to make the home corrals. It was a tale of trucks stuck in the mud and one outfit had to unload the cattle from one truck and leave the other still loaded with cattle on the roads and walk to their home 10 miles distant. Another outfit spent the night herding their cattle to prevent them from straying and took turns trying to sleep in the cab of the truck.
